PROGRAMME INFORMATION

Diploma in Psychology (N/0313/4/0016)(07/29)(MQA/PA17454)

Programme Overview

At LSBF, the Diploma in Psychology programme offers a thorough introduction to the field, establishing a cornerstone in psychological concepts, tenets, and investigative techniques. Through a combination of academic study, practical applications, and experiential learning, students gain insight into human cognition, conduct, and emotional processes.

Guided by seasoned psychology academics, the curriculum covers areas such as developmental, abnormal, social, and cognitive psychology. Students engage in applied exercises including case analyses, collaborative discussions, and empirical projects to apply their knowledge in real-world settings. Upon programme completion, students will emerge equipped with a profound comprehension of human behaviour, poised to make meaningful contributions to individual lives and society at large.
